REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The County Judge of Brazoria County, Tex., W. S. Munson, Jr., who is chairman of a committee appointed to solicit funds for the relief of people in that county, has addressed a circular to District Commissioners, asking through them that county has addressed a circular to District Commissioners, asking through them the assistance of the people of the district in relieving those resident of Br. toria County who suffered and are yet suffering from the effects of the hurricane, which practically destroyed Gaiveston last September.

The county was in the direct path of the Freatest force of the hurricane. There are about 18,000 people in the county, most of them engaged in agricultural pursuits, nearly all of whom have been left homeless and kelthout means of support. A generous public has sent about $62,000 for the relief of these people, who are said to be sadly in need yet of clothing, shelter and food. All contributions, it is explained, should be sent to the chairman of the Relief Committee for Brazoria County, Angleton, Tex.

New York, Nov. 8 .- Since the changes in the Board of Directors of the Kansas City Southern Railway were unnounced numerous reports have been current in Wall street of a large sale of the securities of the road to a syndicate composed of E. H. Harriman, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., James Stillman and the Goulds.

The changes previously announced in the omposition of the voting trust were accomplished without a transfer of securities and were brought about through the inability of the Western interests to make good their offer to buy out the Harriman and other Eastern holdings. When the change was made in the directorate, which gave the Goulds two members in the board, the report that an actual transfer of holdings had taken place received gen-
